Ch, Ch, Ch, changes, turn and face the strange Ch, Ch, Ch, changes . . .

David Bowie

The 1985-1986 school year began with a series of changes to make St. Mary's a better place to be. As of August 24, 1985, the results for a bright and soaring year were definitely displayed on the campus. The students came back to find a new "Holt" known as the "St. Mary-ott," and the remodeling of lower Smedes in progress. Behind some of the classroom doors, we saw several new teachers. There was also exciting news of new clubs and activities to become involved in. Furthermore, the newly formed rules committee added some new rules to be followed. So turn the pages and look back on all that was new to us this year.

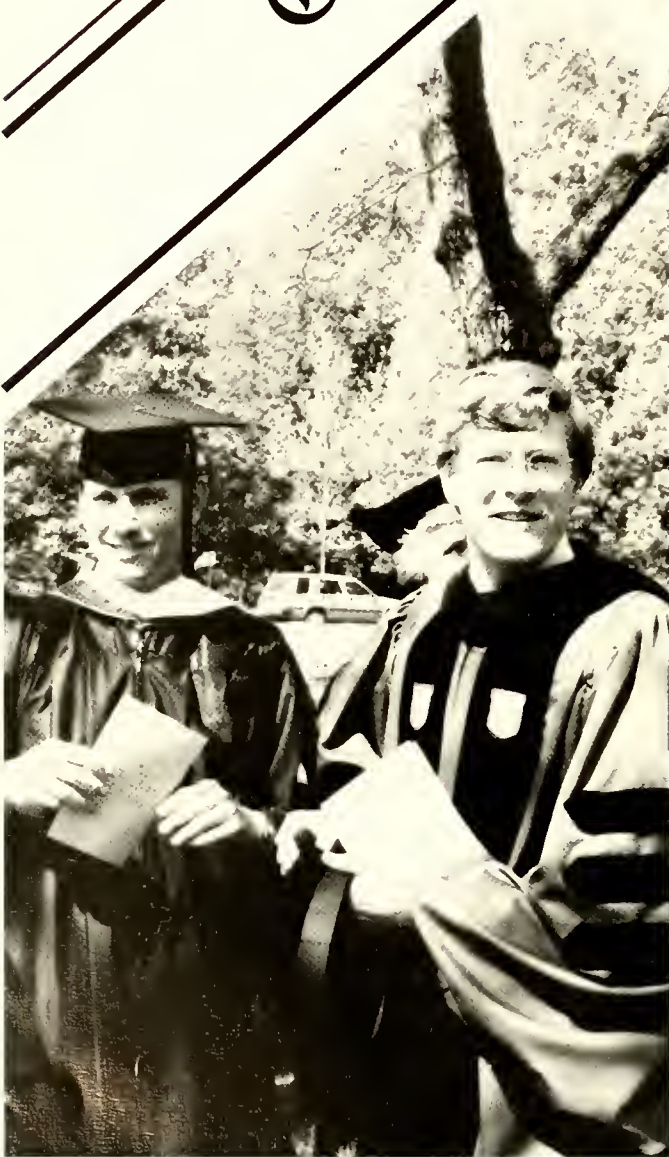

DEDICATION

The 1986, Stagecoach's dedication to the HOUSEMOTHERS of St. Mary's College. St. Mary's employs a total of eight Housemothers. These housemothers put a tremendous amount of work and emotional commitment into the school and into making us, the students, happy in our home away from home. They try their hardest to be happy and make everyone else happy, even though they must stay up late at night until we come in. Also, they collect the guest money in the cafeteria and help at many school functions. In general, they are our mothers away from home. Thanks for all you do, this book is for you.

Drum roll please . . . and heeeeeere they are . . . the outstanding high school and college students of St. Mary's. This annual event recognized Dr. Esthimer with the most outstanding Professor Award and Nicole Turner was honored with the Mt. Holyoke Alumnae Award.

Many other students and faculty members were recognized and awarded for their outstanding achievements in both the academic and fine art fields.

Let's hear it for a Super Year . . . Way to go!

Nothing is sweeter than springtime at St. Mary's. On April 19th, the St. Mary's family celebrated the beauty of the season at their annual SPRING FESTIVAL. The 1985, Spring Court, chosen by the student body, represented the classes respectively. President Rice crowned Miss Annie Gray Sprunt as May Queen. The 1985, Spring Court representatives were Margaret Adams, Robin Bryant, Maria Fisher, Harriet Little, Anne Rice, Mary Eccles Cheatham, Alice Hemingway, Shannon Hines, Kimbrough Mobley, Sally Madison, Noelle Hicklin, Lindy Turner, Hope Dooner, and Alystre Julian. The Caperettes, Orchesis, and Gillie Callum entertained the May Queen and her court during the court presentation. To further enhance SPRING FESTIVAL, the Queen's Ball was added to the agenda this year.

GOING BACK IN TIME

Alumnae Weekend sent spirits soaring for those who graduated in 1935, 1960, 1965, 1975, and 1980. These special reunions were held on April 19-20, 1985. Alumnae were entertained by the Beacon/Circle Tea, a Cold Cut performance, an exhibition of "Paintings of Women," campus tours, and a Cocktail Party. Allison Kerr, a 1975 St. Mary's graduate, entertained on Alumnae Day as a key-note speaker/singer whose fame is quickly spreading as a professional singer. Miss Kerr is a former bongo player for Cold Cuts. Through Alumnae Weekend, Alumnae were able to renew memories of good times and old friends.

GRADUATION

is a sentimental event that takes place annually for both the college and high school students on the front steps of Smedes Hall. It is the day when the results of hard work and achievement are finally rewarded. In addition, this special day is a time to reminisce about friends, happy memories, and all that one has learned. However, graduates are reminded that this day is not just another end, but rather a milestone which should mark a new beginning towards a promising future.

TOP: After taking their vows, students prepare to move their tassels. RIGHT: Two friends hug after being declared graduates. MIDDLE: Franny Fowle leads the procession from the Chapel after the Baccalaureate. ABOVE: Graduates wait impatiently to march.

De Thomas doesn't seem to like the distance between her and the ground.

Bev Tuller is convinced she is Spiderwoman.

Deen Jones decides that she is not so sure of what she has gotten herself into.

Busy, Busy, Busy! SGA and Head Counselors arrived a week before the rest of the students last fall. They met to find out what teamwork is all about.

Two days later, a welcome sight arrived — the rest of the Hall Counselors! Together they went to workshops, a cookout, and worked on decorating their halls. Soon everything was ready for the new and old "campers!"

June, July, August . . . the summer vacation passes you by — then, the day is here . . . time for new adjustments, seeing old friends, meeting new ones . . . making changes . . . it is the beginning of a new adventure. This busy day, ORIENTATION, is definitely a day to remember. For the new girls . . . the day begins in the gym. Mug shots, "smile" — "here are your keys . . . room and laundry" . . . "don't forget to pay your SGA dues!" Then . . . there are the noises of cars, "honk," backing into parking spaces to unload the cargo. "Where is everything going?" Unfortunately, this day comes only once a year!

Whew! Well . . . you are finally settled in . . . the CHANGE is starting to take place. . . say goodbye to Mom and Dad . . . and you are now in flight for an exciting year! Then . . . "What's going on at the Frats tonight girls??"

Sarah Campbell leaps on to the stage for a Cold Cuts' skit.

Isabell observes the new Watts-Carter and Rhatts.

The 1985-1986, Cold Cuts display their new colors of peach and pink.

TALENT SHOW

Paige and Amanda take their turn during the Wette' skit.

Let's take it from the top . . . and a 5, 6, 7, 8 . . . and now introducing the St. Mary's 1985, TALENT SHOW featuring the Cold Cuts in their new colors of peach and pink. The Cold Cuts performed a skit which imitated various St. Mary's personalities, sang their traditional songs, and surprised the audience with several new ones.

Also, the audience had a real treat when Zoe Kerns performed her hilarious imitation of Madonna. The Talent Show is an entertaining event which brings the school together to laugh and to have fun, and for some, to show a hidden and sometimes unusual talent.

"Ring, Ring, . . . Hello, . . . Hi, I'm calling for St. Mary's annual ALUMNAE PHONATHON . . ." This may be a familiar phrase to many of the volunteers who helped at this years phonathon held in October. Volunteers helped the school by raising money while winning prizes and having a lot of fun.

Volunteers are busy making calls to collect money.

Elizabeth Gardner knows she has been caught talking to a friend.

HONOR CHAPEL

The lighting of the candles during Honor Chapel sent a feeling of unity throughout the students.

SGA officers look on as girls sign the St. Mary's Honor Pledge.

Kim Sentospego receives her candle after signing the Honor Pledge.

Honor Chapel is a very serious event at St. Mary's. This year it was held on Tuesday, October 15, 1985. During this special event, each student signs the Honor Pledge. This pledge keeps each girl on her honor throughout the year. The service itself is a beautiful candle-lit service. It is held at night and is followed by singing of the School Hymn in the grove. This is one of the many occasions that makes St. Mary's such a special place.

Parents Weekend '85

October 25 - 27

Parents along with the students seem a little confused about what this teacher is saying.

Parents are given the opportunity to get to know one another and discuss the school on Parents Weekend.

Peige Greene and her parents enjoy refreshments at the president's reception.

Deen Jones and other administrators were available for the parents to talk to.

There were plenty of refreshments and good conversation at the President's reception.

Parents received a warm welcome as they entered Smedes.

Even parents aren't as attentive as they should be in class.

Though St. Mary's welcomes parents anytime, there is a special time set aside each fall just for them. Parents Weekend was held on October 25-26. It was quite an exciting weekend. Parents came from all over to see how their girls live! Suddenly everything looked so nice! Girls with make-up, green grass — no leaves! All to impress the parents! There were many plans including class visitations, tennis tournaments, receptions, and hall visitations along with many other exciting activities to entertain the parents. We love you, parents!

S.G.A. Dance

I guess . . . take the picture.

Close that door; the wind is blowing my hair.

It's time to party!

Our feet are killing us!

"It's time to leeve for the dance."

Oh . . . do you heve to?

Come on, you cen open those eyes!

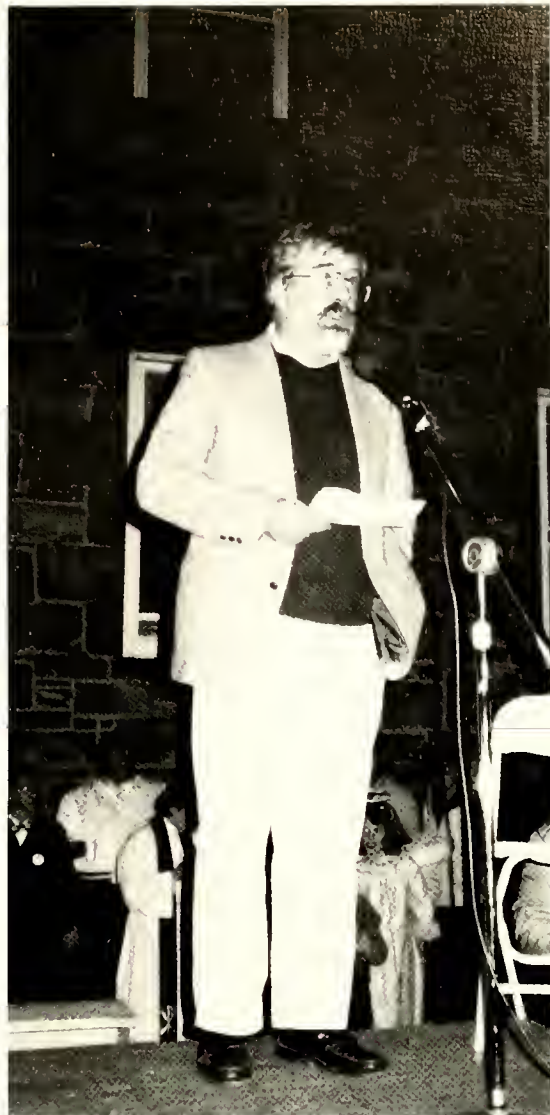

Ien't that cute!

LIGHTING O' THE GREEN

Scrooge, Tiny Tim, and the ghost of Christmas Future paid us a visit.

Dr. Hume got his few words in.

After the Chapel service that cold December evening, it was time to walk with our candles lit outside and gather together to celebrate The Lighting O' The Green. We sang Christmas carols and were entertained by Scrooge. After the tree had been lit, there was hot chocolate, cookies, and Santa Claus to be found waiting.

CIRCLE/BEACON

Believe us! We had to dress like this!

First Penick is on their way!

You're not going to take a picture of me in my P.J.'s; are you?

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Watch out, he is throwing things again!

Is it Halloween yet?

Slumber Party time!

Get those P.J.'s on and get over to Smedes Parlor for the annual Circle/Beacon Christmas Party. Everyone who went to the party was entertained by the Cold Cuts, who dressed up especially for the occasion, and by Santa Claus, alias Mr. Tate, who read "The Night Before Christmas". E. R. Hare, an NCSU student, also told everyone a story. It was a night of fun for all!

DAY STUDENTS . . .

OFFICERS: Gwen Dixon — President, Nicoll Turner — Secretary/Treasurer, Leigh Moore — Head Counselor, Melanie Brinkley, Shannon Coleman, and Kamela Yates — Counselors.

A BREED ALL THEIR OWN!

The new Day Student Club SPIRITS.

Day students are a special breed of people at St. Mary's. They are an active and important part of life at St. Mary's. They are like a club in that they handle special community projects and they also host a picnic at the end of the year for the whole student body. The newly formed Day Student club, The Spirits, says a lot about its members. Day Students contribute a lot to the spirit of St. Mary's.

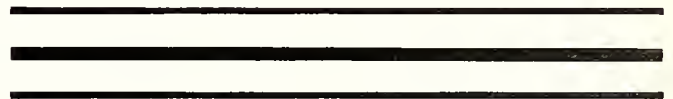

A LITTLE BIT

OF STYLE

You need to go no farther if you want to see the latest trends. St. Mary's campus is like the pages out of a fashion magazine. Familiar sights may be tie dye shirts, lace-up boots, Reeboks galore, dead bracelets, Swatch Watches, long skirts, printed shirts, and we must not forget those blue suede clogs. In another area, personalized license plates have become abundant and the usual stickers, supporting what one believes are still around.

ADMINISTRATION AND STAFF . . .

The administration, headed by President Rice, is a vital part of the St. Mary's community. They keep the school functioning smoothly. Several new faces were to be found in the administration this year. Dr. Elgiva Watson took the place of Dr. Miller as Dean of the School and is performing her job very well. Also, after a long search we located a new chaplain. The Reverend Janet C. Watrous is the first woman to be named to this post at the college.

PRESIDENT RICE AND STAFF

Mrs. Faye Fussell
Administrative Assistant to the President

The leader of the pack — President Rice helps make the St. Mary's experience something to cherish forever. He leads the fund raisers and pushes the student body to participate and do its best while at St. Mary's and in the future.

DEAN WATSON AND STAFF

Ms. Joyce Johnson
Secretary to the Dean

Dean Watson joined the St. Mary's faculty in 1971. During her tenure, she has served in every major committee post including chairman of the Academic Council and faculty representative to the Board of Trustees. From 1973 to 1984, she was chairman of the Social Studies Department. We welcome Dr. Watson to her new position as Dean of the College.

Mrs. Betty Bell
Faculty Secretary

DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE

Keeping on top of what is happening at St. Mary's keeps Dean Jones on her feet. She works closely with the students to keep them out of trouble and as happy as possible. She has a hard job, but manages to do it well.

The faculty of St. Mary's College is in no doubt a very important and special part of the St. Mary's community. They are all more than willing to give extra time and help for the benefit of the St. Mary's student. This year, St. Mary's has been honored with the additions of Mr. Lee, Mr. Solari, Dr. Caddell, Ms. Halpin, and Ms. Battle. Also, we may welcome back Dr. Saxe after she took first semester off and travelled to France with her husband.

SENIORS

1989

S-E-N-I-O-R-S. Seniors at Saint Mary's are the Best! Whether a 2 year-girl, 4 year-girl, graduating or not . . . it was a special year for each of us! Fraternity parties, SGA Dances, UNC, special friends, special events, along with SMC traditions — Chapel Pledges, curfews, and NO GUYS! All of these will make a significant impression in our memories.

To all of those who cared for us and who have prepared us for the future during these years — WE THANK you as we now face the future . . . at Chapel Hill or wherever . . . We look back at wonderful memories and appreciation and look to the future with anticipation and eagerness!

Good luck to all Seniors!

JUNIORS . . .

JUNIORS . . . Accelerated on just a junior — It is the junior's first year in college and a first real time to think about how they want to develop their future. It is a time to hope for adventure and prosperity. They have developed new friendships and a new life in the St. Mary's Community. As the juniors patiently wait for next year and their Graduation, they are very enthusiastic about making the year 85-86 the best year ever.

IN LOVING MEMORY

MARGARET PHELPS MATTHEWS

Margaret Phelps Matthews died in an automobile accident on Wednesday, December 18, 1985.

Margaret, 19, was a junior here at St. Mary's.

She will be especially missed by her roommate, Lisa Smith, and a special group of friends on 3rd West Cruikshank.

Margaret holds a very special place in each of our hearts. Because of her, doors were opened that gave many of us new meanings of life. Our closeness will never diminish because our thoughts of Margaret will always bind our souls together. Even though Margaret is no longer with us, her memory will be everlasting. We had a friend; we had an awesome friend . . .
